

Beyond Salvation And Baptism

John 1:1-4 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

1John 1:5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

1Th 5:9-10 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

Creation is Life in God. All perfection, without darkness. Life is the light of men. Jesus also fulfilled the position of light, as God in the flesh. The life of humankind in the world is the light of Christ, as Christ is within thee. Jesus who died for us, whether we are awake or asleep, He is still within every soul.

Attention please:

Psalms 139:12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

Proverbs 19:15 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

Luke 11:35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

John 12:46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

Believeth from the Greek (John 12:46);

G4100 πιστεύω From G4102; to have faith (in, upon, or with respect to, a person or thing), that is, credit; by implication to entrust (especially one's spiritual well being to Christ): put in trust with. G4102 πίστις From G3982; persuasion, that is, credence; moral conviction (of religious truth, or the truthfulness of God or a religious teacher), especially reliance upon Christ for salvation; abstractly constancy in such profession; by extension the system of religious (Gospel) truth itself. G3982 πείθω A primary verb; to convince (by argument, true or false); by analogy to pacify or conciliate (by other fair means); reflexively or passively to assent (to evidence or authority), to rely (by inward certainty): - agree, assure, believe, have confidence.

Summarizing believeth;

To have confidence, to rely upon Christ for salvation, by way of the truth, the Gospel, with the moral conviction of trust, respect, and living life having faith.

Psalms 89:15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

Mat 6:22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.
